A NOTE TO PARENTS

Our heart in designing this activity book is to provide you with a tool that sparks conversations with your little ones. We hope you will be able to take these activities and have meaningful discussions that give your child the ability to make the best choices for their safety when in uncertain situations.

Throughout this activity book your little one will learn to stay safe, and show kindness in their everyday routines. Thank you for all you do and for having the hard conversations to keep children safe!
